Watski Skagerrak TwoStar is a 300 nautical mile twohanded adventure that over the last three years have gathered hundred of dedicated sailors from the cruising and racing world alike. This is the ultimate Scandinavian test of endurance, all round sailing skills and hard racing.

This year the Norwegian contingent of 150 boats were filled in just over three hours after the registration opened. In addition to this there are 16 participants from Sweden, Denmark and Germany. But there is still room for 34 more foreign boats on the starting line. If you have the opportunity to take part in this adventure you can register on http://www.seilmagasinet.no/sm_arkiv/s2sPamelding06.php?setLang=eng.

The adventure starts in Hankø, south of Oslo, stretches down to Arendal on the Norwegian south coast, over to Marstrand, Sweden, and back to Hankø again. In both Arendal and Marstrand the sailors have a 3 hour pit stop to catch up on sleep, talk to their competitors and media. All the boats will be equipped with tracking equipment that will deliver real time tracking on SEILmagasinet's website. Watski Skagerrak TwoStar 2006 starts June 14th.
